Tenzin Dawa is a smart little boy with fair complexion born on 15th June 2007 in Ngam Ring Zong, a beautiful countryside in Tibet. The marginalisation of Tibetans inside Tibet economically and politically has endangered the very survival of Tibetan identity. As such his father boldly took this step of escaping into exile along with his smallest child in order to have blessing of His Holiness along with huge hope of his child becoming educated and civilized person in future Tibet.

As such Tibetan Children Village has accepted to pay stipend for this child's subsistence through TCV Outreach Program. This program takes care and educates most vulnerable and needy children.

Once the case is accepted the family will receive a monthly stipend allowance to help meet the family's need like children's food, clothing, education and health etc.
